

BED & BOAT

Our exclusive Bed & Boat Package allows you to not only cruise on Rangeley Lake but spend time living on the lake. Stay at Loon's Nest, our private suite in our year-round log cabin located on the west shore of Rangeley Lake in the Village of Oquossoc.

Loon's Nest has two double beds, large sitting room, private bath, kitchen, and access to all our lakefront amenities (canoes, kayaks, dock, swim float) Additional information on Loon's Nest can be found at <http://maine-rentals.com/vacation/rentals/10066.html>.

Suite Rates are $600/week, $180/2 nights, and $100/night (all rates are double occupancy). Stay a week and get a complimentary lake cruise aboard the Oquossoc Lady.

Your Crew

Kevin and Doreen live on the west shore of Rangeley Lake in the Village of Oquossoc. After completing a 25 year career as a naval aviator and raising three daughters, they retired to Oquossoc in 2006. In 2008 they purchased the "Oquossoc Lady" and in the Summer of 2009 they started Rangeley Region Lake Cruises. Kevin, a Registered Maine Guide and Licensed Boat Captain, enjoys providing a safe and leisurely cruise that includes a historic discussion of the Rangeley Region and affords passengers a wonderful opportunity for close up viewing of the local wildlife. We look forward to welcoming you aboard.

GENERAL CRUISE INFORMATION

Homeport

All cruises depart from Saddleback Marina in Oquossoc, ME, unless specifically mentioned in the cruise description. Saddleback Marina provides parking and restroom facilities. Cruise pick up and drop off will be from the end of the permanent dock at the Marina.

Dates

Cruises run daily from Memorial Day weekend through Columbus Day weekend, subject to weather conditions.

Cruise Length / Times

Cruise length and departure times for The Loon and The Lady, Oquossoc Outing, and Sunset cruises are outlined in the cruise descriptions. All other cruises are 1-hour long.

Departure times will be determined by reservations. Call with your preferred date and time and we will do our best to accommodate your request.

Payment

Payment will be made prior to boarding at the dock. Check or cash please (no credit cards). Large groups may be required to send a deposit.

- Seating capacity is 8-10 passengers.
- All passengers/groups will be issued a boarding pass/ticket when payment is made at the dock.
- Except for private charters, you may be paired with other cruise passengers.
- Vessel is not handicapped accessible.
- Pick-up at private docks and lakeside businesses possible. Call for details.
 - No smoking allowed.
 - No food or alcohol permitted (except for private charters).
- Surrey top and full canvas allow cruising in most weather conditions
- Any cruise may be cancelled due to adverse weather

Come enjoy the "Oquossoc Lady" and pristine Rangeley Lake.

Celebrating Our 3rd Season

SCENIC CRUISES on Rangeley Lake

Aboard our 1947 restored
wood launch
The "Oquossoc Lady"

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED

Please call or e-mail

Kevin and Doreen Sinnett
Rangeley Region Lake Cruises

(h) 207-864-2038

(c) 443-603-7929

kdsinnett@yahoo.com

WWW.RANGELEYLAKECRUISES.COM

Homeported at Saddleback Marina in Oquossoc Cove
on Rangeley Lake

Our most popular tour, the Narramantic Island Cruise, gives you an intriguing, historic overview of Oquossoc Cove and the West Shore of Rangeley Lake, to include:

- Indian Point and The Lake Point Cottage
 - Mountain View Hotel Site
 - Bonney Point
- Saddleback and Bald Mountains
 - Rangeley Lake State Park
 - Narramantic Island
- South Bog Preserve and Stream
- South Rangeley Steamboat Landing and Train Depot Site
 - LL Bean Camps
- Loon, Bald Eagle, and Osprey viewing

Cruise Rate:

Adults: $25 (Group of 6 or more: $20/adult)
Child (10 yrs & under): $10/child

Want to enjoy a day in the quaint Village of Oquossoc? Join us for the Oquossoc Outing cruise, lunch, and shopping package. Your cruise will depart at 10:30am and follow the same scenic track as the Narramantic Island Cruise. Upon returning to the dock, you can drive (or walk 100 yards) to The Gingerbread House Restaurant, the 1950's landmark that was previously Fowler's Market and post office. You will be seated for a Noon-time lunch and, with presentation of your cruise ticket, receive a 10% discount on your entrée. After enjoying a delicious lunch, you can browse the Oquossoc shops and tour the new Outdoor Sporting Heritage Museum. (Museum hours: Mon-Sat, 10am-2pm).

Cruise Rate:

Adults: $25 (Group of 6 or more: $20/adult)
Child (10 yrs & under): $10/child

Our very popular dinner and a cruise package, The Loon and The Lady, is the perfect way to enjoy a spectacular evening on Rangeley Lake. We will depart Saddleback Marina 3½ hours prior to sunset for a scenic, one-hour cruise to Loon Lodge Inn and Restaurant, the former Davis Lodge that celebrated its 100 year anniversary in 2009. Enroute you will see the former sites of the Mountain View Hotel, Mingo Springs Hotel and Munyon's Camp. After gliding past Doctors Island, we will dock at Loon Lodge, the premier waterfront restaurant on Rangeley Lake. During the cruise you will make your dinner selections, providing you preferred service and ample time to enjoy 1½ hours of fine dining. You will receive 10% discount on your dinner entrée with this package. Following dinner, you will board the Oquossoc Lady for a 50-minute sunset cruise back to the marina.

Cruise Rate: $30/adult, $15/child (10 yrs & under).
Minimum 4 / Maximum 10 passengers.

Friday Nights at Loon Lodge

Starting July 1st and running through September 2nd, we will offer our Rangeley Cruise departing from the lakeside dock of Loon Lodge Inn and Restaurant. Two spectacular evening cruises will be offered every Friday (Call for times, they vary with sunset). Once aboard, we will cruise out to and around Doctors Island while learning the history of this lake landmark. We will then head to the Rangeley Town Cove where you will see the town park, old steamboat wharf site, Marble Station, and the location of the grand Rangeley Lake House and boardwalk. The cruise will then return to Loon Lodge where you can enjoy wonderful lakeside dining.

Cruise Rate:

Adults: $25 (Group of 6 or more: $20/adult)
Child (10 yrs & under): $10/child

Our Sunset Cruise departs 45 minutes prior to sunset. As the sun starts to set and the winds lie down, remarkable sunsets are presented over Oquossoc Cove and Bald Mountain.

A perfect way to end the day!

Bald eagle sighting are very common on this cruise.

Cruise Rate:

Adults: $25 (Group of 6 or more: $20/adult)
Child (10 yrs & under): $10/child

Late September and early October provide some of the most spectacular fall foliage in the country. Following the same track as the Narramantic Island Cruise, our Fall Foliage Cruise highlights the fall colors of Bald, Saddleback, & Spotted Mountains, and South Bog Preserve. Bring your camera and sweatshirt and see our beautiful fall colors.

Cruise Rate:

Adults: $25 (Group of 6 or more: $20/adult)
Child (10 yrs & under): $10/child

Private Cruises are a popular way to enjoy the Oquossoc Lady for any special occasion. These can include wedding parties, corporate gatherings, motor coach groups, anniversaries, birthday parties, graduation parties or a romantic cruise with your spouse. Feel free to "build your own cruise" and see any part of the lake you desire. To further enjoy your private cruise, you are permitted to bring your own food and beverage aboard.

Cruise Rate:

First Hour - $200.00. Any additional ½ hr - $75.00.
Maximum 10 passengers.